Let's start our walking and shopping tour at the head of Nassaustraat at one of Aruba's oldest, yet most modern and up-to-date stores... ARUBA TRADING COMPANY, affiliated with the Yellow House in Curaçao. Here, all under the same roof, you will find a fabulous collection of perfumes, cosmetics, cashmeres, Danish pipes, D'Avenza sportcoats, French and Italian ties, and gift articles sure to please young and old. Liquor and cigarettes in bond are delivered free of charge to your ship or plane. Still under the same roof, their airconditioned PHOTO EL GLOBO carries one of the Caribbean's largest selections of photographic and electronic equipment. A most courteous and friendly welcome awaits you at the ARUBA TRADING COMPANY.

Directly across the street is LEO BERLINSKI, jeweler, featuring platinum and 18 ct. gold jewelry set with precious and semi-precious stones, cultured pearls, the world famous Girard Perregaux and other well known Swiss made watches. They carry sterling, silver plated and stainless steel cutlery, bone china and ceramic dinnerware, crystal from France, Finland, Sweden and England, figurines, teakwood articles, petit point and beaded bags. There are gifts galore in every price range just waiting for you, so browse to your heart's content.

Right next door is the wonderland of the airconditioned PEASANT SHOP, with handicrafts from 52 countries! Madeira linens, handcarved wooden figurines, masks and lamps. Cashmere sweaters from Pringle, Lyle & Scott and Cox Moore; also beaded sweaters and "Kislav" kid gloves. Meerscham, Dunhill, Comoy pipes. They also carry perfumes and colognes, as well as the delicious Verkade and Cadbury chocolates, and Dutch "zoute drop" (licorice). If you want to replenish your vitamin supply, or want a prescription filled, their reliable "apotheker" (pharmacist) will be glad to be of assistance.

On the corner to your left, the carillon and the lovely showcase displays identify SPRITZER AND FUHRMANN'S well known Aruba store. They will be pleased to show their unique collection of diamond and gold jewelry, mostly exclusive pieces from the Continent. Fine watches such as Patek Philippe and Piaget and a wide range of Swiss novelty watches, are all advantageously priced. There are clocks, evening bags, objects d'art, crystal, sterling and bone china from the most famous European houses, much more than we can mention... plus their very special brand of personalized service. Your guarantees are honored at their New York store, 5 East 57th Street and you are "bonbini" at their lovely stores in Bonaire, Curaçao, and St. Maarten.

Leaving S&F you face the stairs that lead to EVA BOUTIQUE, house of custom made designs as well as ready made clothing for Milady. ## INTRODUCING "DUSHI" ARUBA

Welcome to Aruba, the Dutch isle in the Caribbean where the climate is so temperate there's no word for summer in Papiamentu, the island's home-grown language.

The sun shines 365 days a year... even in the rainy season (from October to December) it only rains a few minutes of the day. On Aruba's unequalled long white beaches, one can laze and sun to toast perfection, cooled by the constant trade winds. The delicious azure waters that lap at the shore invite you to swim, sailfish, water ski, or glide effortlessly over the water in a glass bottom boat, watching the enchantment of fishes at play in the cristal clear, sandy deep.

The flame-red poincianas, called 'flamboyan' by the Arubans, brighten the countryside as do the brilliantly colored neat little houses, with their wind-bent divi-divi trees. Some of the 'cunucu' homes are still decorated with hex signs to ward off ancient evils. The countryside is liberally strewn with huge diorite boulders, and at Ayó and Casibari, are tiny government parks built around giant piles of these boulders. Stone steps to the top of Casibari provide a panoramic view of the entire countryside. The natural bridge was actually carved out of the rocks by the wild seas of the north coast. At the ghostly old gold mines of Bushiribana bits of quartz with specks of precious gold can still be found.

Some of the world's very finest merchandise is to be found along Aruba's Nassaustraat, and all at free port prices! Shopping is adventurous, searching out the unusual in leisurely fashion. This treasure shopping is a favorite pastime in Aruba's modern stores, made easy by hospitable shopkeepers and salesfolk that are always friendly and helpful.

But mostly the sun shines and the trade wind blows with such regularity that local newspapers never bother publishing weather reports. Tourists like all this, of course. Arubans also appreciate their climate, with one exception. They never get to talk about the weather!

The "Scoop" on U.S. Customs Regulations

U.S. Customs Regulations need not frustrate the traveling shopper. Shopping in the Netherlands Antilles can result in many a worthwhile saving. Here are some of the facts about the new October 1, 1965 Customs Regulations and some tips which will make your shopping in the Netherlands Antilles pleasant and profitable.

The U.S. Customs Regulations allow that:

Each returning resident may take back with him, free of duty and tax, articles totaling $ 100.—, providing the stay abroad has exceeded 48 hours and that the $ 100.— exemption or any part of it has not been used within the preceding 30 days. (The $ 100.— is based on the fair retail value of the items in the country obtained).

The advantages to be considered are:

1. There is NO LIMIT to the number of articles you can take back, as long as you pay duty on the amount in excess of the $100.—. The duty on purchases in excess of $ 100.— is levied on the WHOLESALE PRICE of the item IN THE COUNTRY OBTAINED (the customs officer generally subtracts 40% of your retail cost to arrive at the wholesale value).
Now here is where you can effect your savings. For example: Let us say that a camera retailing in the U.S. for $ 50.— is retailing in Aruba for $ 30.—. U.S. Customs will levy a 15% duty on 60% of the $ 30.— Aruba price. This is only a duty of $ 2.70. Thus, the total cost of the camera to you, including the duty you will pay on arrival in the U.S. is only $ 32.70! which is still considerably lower than the U.S. retail price of $ 50.—.
2. GIFTS . . . In addition to the $ 100.— exemption, each traveller can mail an UNLIMITED NUMBER of gifts valued up to $ 10.— each, to friends and relatives back home, provided the addressee does not receive in a single day gift parcels exceeding the $ 10.— limitation. NO declaration is required, and NO tax is levied. Gifts of liquor and tobacco are not permitted, but perfume, valued at less than one dollar, is permitted in this privilege.
3. LOW DUTY items are GOOD BUYS because even when including the duty they will cost far less than you would pay back home.

Such items as cameras, watches, jade, perfume, cultured pearls and shoes are good buys.

4. FREE OF DUTY are portable typewriters, foreign photographic film, original paintings, drawings and sculptures, foreign language books, antiques produced before 1830 . . . and of all things, caviar and truffles!
5. WEAR AND TEAR on items purchased during your trip and used during the trip, such as clothing, cameras, binoculars, watches, will be considered by the customs authorities. When declaring these items, mention that they have been used on the trip and the customs officer will make an appropriate reduction for wear and/or use of the value of the item and on the subsequent duty.
6. An UNLIMITED AMOUNT of cigarettes can be brought in duty-free (within your $ 100.— exemption) for personal use (New Yorkers, please note!). Cigars, however, are limited to 100.
7. DUTY-FREE LIQUOR may total one quart per person over 21. Substantial savings can be realized when taking back more than one quart because even with the duty it comes out cheaper than at the corner liquor store in the U.S. This is especially so on higher priced brand items, and on brandy and wine. E. g. a bottle of liquor retailing in the U.S. for $ 9.26 is sold in bond in Aruba at $ 2.75. The duties levied are $ 2.35, thus the total cost of this bottle to you, including the U.S. duty, is only $ 5.10, and your savings amount to $ 4.16! Imagine the savings on five such bottles amounting to $20.80!!!
8. Remember that you are not allowed to bring back merchandise originating in Communist China, North Korea, North Vietnam and Cuba.
9. SAVE MONEY by using your $ 100.— exemption for the high duty items. Pay duty on the low duty items.
10. Go through U.S. Customs SMOOTHLY by filling out your declaration carefully, keeping your dutiable items together and your sales slips handy.

COLORFUL WHARFSIDE MARKET . . . not far from where the cruise ships dock. Fruits and vegetables for sale from other islands, fish from surrounding waters, all brought by the stoutbeamed sailing vessels seen quietly rocking at anchor in the harbor.

PROTESTANT CHURCH . . . in Oranjestad. One of the town's finest landmarks is this modern new church. Although the church is painted gray, the quaint old houses sport the brightest paint jobs . . . raspberry red, Delft blue, sunshine yellow and all other brilliant colors giving Oranjestad a charming kaleidoscopic effect.

PUBLIC LIBRARY (Tel. 1580) Wilhelminastraat 6: Books loaned to tourists free of charge. In English, Spanish, or Dutch. Open weekdays: 9-12 a.m. and 2:30-5:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Fridays 7-9 p.m.

MT. HOOIBERG . . . It means "haystack" in Dutch. And that's exactly what the wind and the weather have made the Hooiberg look like. It's a landmark that helps you get your bearings no matter where you go. There are concrete steps to the top, the climb is worth it because the view is magnificent!

THE UNUSUAL DIVI DIVI TREE . . . shaped by the constant winds, the divi-divi tree grows straight up for eight or ten feet and then takes off horizontally. A hiker never needs a compass on Aruba, the divi-divi tree always points southwest!

SECLUDED COVE FOR TWO . . . as a contrast to the sugar white beaches on the south coast, the quiet little coves to the north are virtually uninhabited. Accessible over land, by car, . . . pack a picnic lunch and put yourself in the picture above.

BEACHSIDE, ARUBA CARIBBEAN HOTEL . . . with sailfishes at the ready for a sunny ride on the placid Caribbean. The less energetic toast to a well turned tan, cooled by the gentle trade-winds.

NATURAL BRIDGE . . . on the north-coast, carved out of solid coral rock over the ages by the crashing sea. The Island Government has built a road along the wildly dramatic coast, and has constructed a parking area and stairs at the site.

Also worth seeing are the remarkable technological advances that have set Aruba apart for its farsightedness. These include the island's sea water distillation plant which can produce 3,500,000 gallons of fresh water per day, (as well as 114,000 kilowatts of electricity), its Nutriculture (or Hydroponics) farm where tomatoes, cucumbers, melons, and shoestring beans are grown scientifically, without soil, in water and chemicals, and the Aruba Chemical Industry, with a fertilizer output of 500 tons per day, and an ammonia output of 325 tons daily.

It's a new experience in golfing, what with the wind and the goats . . . and oiled sand greens! And it's a wise golfer who wears a cap and takes the proper precautions against wind and sunburn. Charges are $ 2.50, caddy fees $ 1.50 . . for 18 holes. Clubs can be rented at a modest rate. Call 9-3485 to arrange for your game. For transportation out to the club, call a travel agent.

ISLAND HOPPING IN THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES

A visit to Aruba is not complete without a stop at one or all of our sister islands. It's less than a 30 minute hop to Curaçao with its famous free port shops and swinging pontoon bridge called Queen Emma. Another 20 minutes or so, and you're in tranquil Bonaire, isle of peace and quiet, home of the pink flamingoes.

The three windward islands which make up the rest of the Netherlands Antilles are: St. Maarten, one of the newest "finds" in the Caribbean... quaintly half Dutch, half French. Saba, 15 minutes from St. Maarten, is famed for the intricate lace work made by the women patiently awaiting the return of their menfolk from the sea. (The incredible town called "the Bottom" is located 3,000 feet up though actually in the bottom of an extinct volcano!) At nearby St. Eustatius, the American Flag was first saluted by a foreign power.

ALM Dutch Antillean Airlines operates frequent and fast scheduled services to Curaçao, Bonaire and St. Maarten, from where the Windward Islands Airways hops you to Saba and St. Eustatius. A twin engined ALM Beachcraft is also available for charter flights. Inquire at the ALM office at the airport, or your travel agent. Yes, island hopping in the Netherlands Antilles is fun AND INEXPENSIVE, as in many cases your ticket from abroad may be extended to one or more of the islands at little or no cost.
